ECHO 1966

Enfield High School

Thompsonville, Connecticut

MISS IDA PERDRIZET

Dear Miss Perdrizet,

You have discussed and helped us to solve our problems and to adjust to our school and social environment. You have also helped us to understand ourselves and our potentialities so that we could set realistic goals for the future. You have encouraged us to pursue the right education and have shown us what it can mean to us economically and culturally.

It is with sincere appreciation for your guidance and interest during our years in Enfield High School that we, the class of 1966, dedicate this Echo to you.

Sincerely,

CLASS OF 1966

Preface

The scales are about to tip. Many of us will continue our formal education, others of us will begin a career. All have benefited from the well balanced programs offered to us by our school. In our academic pursuits we have been aided by well equipped scientific, language, and social studies laboratories. Vocational training was offered to prepare students for future occupations. Music, art, and homemaking students all worked with special facilities designed to provide practical training. To aid not only in enriching our lives, but also assisting with our studies, a well trained librarian and well stocked library were at our disposal. Combined with these excellent conditions, we have been served by truly dedicated teachers.

In the field of athletics, mental alertness was coupled with physical fitness. There were eight varsity interscholastic sports, most of which had junior varsity teams from which to draw players. All of us aren't athletes, but our varied physical education program helps us all to keep in good physical condition.

Our social activities have added to our well-rounded program. Organizations such as Future Teachers of America and Future Nurses Club have been established to acquaint us with possible future occupations. Clubs have been formed to develop skills and talents, such as the Dramatics Club, Model Congress, or Echoes. Others, like the popular Ski Club are for recreation and fun. In all of these we have sought to obtain the needed balance.

from the ideas of great men,

Enfield High School offers its students a diversified four year English course. The student may choose between academic or business English. The primary objective of Business English is training the students in the mastery of business terms and the mechanics of communication, reading and writing. In Academic English the aim is to develop and improve the four areas of communication. And through a study of American literature the students are acquainted with American ideals. In addition, courses in journalism and speech are offered.

Mr. Nigro conducts a discussion on English Literature.

Students are offered a wide variety of subjects in the field of social studies. Geography, a survey of all the countries in the world is usually followed by a course in world civilization which encompasses a study of history from the "cradle" civilizations to the present. An American history course is offered and is compulsory for Juniors. Modern World problems is offered to Seniors as an "in depth" study of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. Other courses are offered to students who wish to gain further knowledge in social studies such as social problems and economics.

Mrs. Johnson cheerfully teaching a mathematical shortcut.

With the present change in curriculum, no longer can the freshman be distinguished by his taking Algebra I. A freshman may be learning that "x" is unknown (Algebra I) or he may find his problem involves a graph with "x" accompanied by unknown "y" (Algebra II). The mathematician then proceeds to geometry where he learns of triangles, axioms and postulates. The last step is Math IV consisting of the slide rule, functions, and graphs. But those mathematically inclined will be taking Math V, working on calculus in their senior year.

The Science Department of Enfield High School is geared to the students' abilities and interests. With the help of modern equipment and laboratories and the direction of adept teachers, many of the students acquire a firm background in the fundamentals of the sciences.

As a freshman, the student can choose among physical science, general science, and earth science.

The sophomore studies biology to acquaint himself with the living organisms of the earth. In the last two years of high school the student can study physics for a better understanding of energy, and chemistry for the scientific knowledge of the nature of his world. In chemistry the emphasis is on individual laboratory work to develop the student's confidence and resourcefulness.

learning useful skills,

Business Education at Enfield High School provides a broad general training in office skills. Individual differences are recognized by grouping young women into a secretarial or a clerical business course. Young men pursue a general business course leading to accounting. Driver Education is one of our high school's most worthwhile courses. It is composed of classroom instruction, behind-the-wheel training in drive-o-trainers and on-the-road instruction. It is a half-year course which qualifies the student for the Connecticut state driver's license. Enfield High School students receive untold benefits from this enlightening course.

fitness, Who among us, other, has not wish

Precision and timing is essential in a feat of this type.

Who among us, at one time or another, has not wished that he could bypass gym class? The answer of course is that most of us have expressed the same desire, but not one of us will deny the fact that although there may be aching muscles, physical education is an essential part of our attempt to grow and develop as complete human beings.

Dedicated physical education teachers attest each day to the fact that physical fitness is indispensable to sound bodies and minds.

The gymnasium has become an integral part of our high school activities. In it we have watched our basketball games, attended our proms, and finally, our graduation. As we graduate we are reminded of the essential part this gymnasium and physical education has played in our lives and experiences as high school students.

President's Message

"A sound mind in a sound body is a short but full description of a happy state in this world. He that has these two, has little more to wish for; and he that wants either of them, will be little the better for anything else."

John Locke

How often have we heard the expression "A sound mind and a sound body go hand in hand."? Looking back over our high school years, we see that we have strived to maintain a balance between the classroom, the athletic field and our social activities. Our academic and athletic achievements, as well as our social behavior, have been commendable.

We leave Enfield High, with a sense of pride in these accomplishments. To all future seniors we leave traditions to be employed as guidelines and our accomplishments in the classroom and on the athletic field as goals to be attained and even surpassed.

To our teachers and our athletic coaches who have imparted their knowledge and guidance to us so that we could perform as we did, we acknowledge our warm appreciation for our marvelous and eventful years. We are especially indebted to our parents who have contributed immeasurably to our lives so that we could become more complete individuals in both mind and body.

Class History 1966

Tonight we leave the security and shelter of our high school. Now, as young adults, we are being tossed out into a complex, demanding world. Ahead of us lies the balance between further education and the prospect of future occupations. Some of us will enter college and others will begin work in their chosen vocations. We will carry with us the knowledge and experience which we have gained over the past four years.

As summer turned to fall, there we were, young and excited at the prospect of entering a new school. There was a balance between the security which we had felt in junior high and the anticipation of the obstacles which we would encounter in a new school. Through that first day of confusion we finally established ourselves as full-fledged freshmen. We were no longer on double sessions. We were to be the first class to complete four full years in our new school. the first class to complete rour rull years in our new school. We had gained a new prestige as high school students, but we had yet to convince the upper-classmen of that. Through the aid of our officers, Linda Moody, president; Miki Mokrycki, vice-president; Beryl Baker, secretary; and Gail Blakeslee, treasurer; we became a united class. The balance between faculty and students was established through our Student Council representatives, Alma Maldonado, Pol Holt, Bill Nareski, Francis Catania, Steve Estavanik, and Howard Scholastically, Miki Mokrycki received the English Composition Award and Steve Estavanik the Math Award.

Honor was also brought to our class on the athletic field. On the gridiron, Jack Jacewicz, Jay Fuller, Bob Bohman, Rick LaFleur, Herb Taylor, Ray Weller, Roy King, John Longo, and Gerry McDougal brought recognition to the Green Raiders.

On the basketball court, Charlie Ragno, Mike Angelica, Jay Fuller, Jack Herold, Bob Porcello, Nick Albano, Gerry McDougal and Pat Reilly battled the opposition.

Rick Baril, Gerry McDougal, Dave McCord, Randy Fisher and Mike Angelica fought the challengers on the baseball diamond.

As our freshman year drew to a close, our anxious anticipation of the coming year increased.

Our reputation as ambitious and concerned students was upheld throughout our sophomore year. This was to be a time of development in all fields with a balance between scholastic and athletic achievements.

The boys on the basketball court were joined by Ken Van Nostrand, Steve Mayville, and Harold Daigneau. Beryl Baker, Jeanne Olschafski, Diana Stein, and Claire Tenerowicz, as JV cheerleaders, aroused the fans and cheered the boys on to victory. Our baseball team, led by Gerry McDougal, Mike Angelica, Dave McCord and Jack Whiteley continued to exhibit its strength.

That year in our class elections, Linda Gademan stepped into the presidency with Tom Kozaczka, vice-president; Betty Sarno, secretary; and Gail Blakeslee, treasurer; completing the slate. Alma Maldonado, Wendy Weisleder, Pol Holt, Ann Egan and Howard Crane represented us in Student Council Luder the council we learned that the center. dent Council. Under the council, we learned that the center stairs were for traveling downward. If we happened to forget that rule, several seniors were stationed at strategic locations to casually remind us.

Margaret Jensen added to the Class' prestige by receiving the Latin I Award.

But our class was not to sit idly by and have our honor handed to us. That year the academic and vocational students joined together to work on our first project, our "Penny-less Dance," under the direction of Linda Gademan.

In the field of dramatics, Janet Sabellico, Diane Wakelee, and Mo Mercik gave memorable performances in our production of Teahouse of the August Moon.

As our junior year began, we obtained the cherished title of upperclassmen. We were now past the stage of sliding down banisters and our new-found maturity was professed.

Our football team, spurred on by Jack Jacewicz, Jay Fuller, Bob Bohman, Greg Quinlan, John Ashton, Mike Angelica, Herb Taylor, Jack Herold, Ray Weller, Gerry McDougal and Charlie Ragno gave an unforgettable performance that year. None of us will ever forget the highlight of the year-the Longmeadow game, when, in the last two minutes, we moved the ball across the line to beat our arch-rivals 12-6. That year, Charlie Ragno added En-field's name to the Suburban League All-Stars.

Everything was continually moving now. There was no regressing; we were moving forward at a rapid pace. Our hard-working soccer team displayed its never-ending spirit in spite of a disappointing season. Tom Besse, Mike Foley, Bill Nareski, Bob Jones, and Tom Browne were on the field

That year Tom Kozaczka took over as president, Bill Dripchak as vice-president, Betty Sarno as secretary, and Lynn Smyth as treasurer. To assist them were our Student Council representatives Miki Mokrycki, Alma Maldonado, Steve Estvanik, Howard Crane, Sam Sferrazza and Ann Egan.

Another major production of the year was the play Inherit the Wind, the largest production ever staged by the Enfield Lamplighters. The scales of justice were leveled as Janet Sabellico, Barry Masterson, Ellen FitzGibbons, Francis Catania, John Ashton and Jim Verdina reenacted the famous

Darwin Monkey Trial. Our basketball team was not to be forgotten. Ken Van Nostrand, Gerry McDougal, Charlie Ragno, Mike Angelica, Pat Reilly, and Bob Porcello performed a superior job on the court as Beryl Baker, Pat Hall, and Jeanne Olschafskie cheered them on to victory. That year the girls also scored on the basketball court. Colleen Schneider, Wendy Weisleder, Linda Ruggiero, Sheila Willey, Donna Bartlett, Marilyn Smythe, Barbara Mylek and Shirley Smith scored the points

Steve Mayville acted as Chairman of our prom, "Athenian Sunset". Barry Masterson and Mo Mercik, as host and hostess, greeted each couple with a friendly welcome.

There were many awards that year. Joe McGrath received both the Latin II and the American History Awards. Linda Gademan received the Leadership Medalion. In the business field, Elaine Maholski received the Typing and Transcription Awards. Noreen Bednarski received the Bookkeeping Award.

Five juniors received letters of commendation from the National Merit Exams. They were Linda Gademan, Ann Egan, Marilyn Cherry, Steve Estavanik, and Steve Tremont.

To Girls' State we sent Ann Egan, Betty Meskell, and Alma Maldonado and the representatives to Boys' State were Tom Kozaczka and Paul Skowran.

That was the year we just missed tying for the Valley Wheel baseball title. The scales of justice seemed to be tilted in the opponents' favor. The team, with Mike Angeli-ca, Charlie Ragno and Dave McCord, relied on its pitching and defense for their victories. Mike Angelica brought honor to our class when he was named All-Valley Wheel third baseman.

Our band, under the direction of Mr. DeMaio, won fame in its own right. Their talent was made evident through a broadcast over WTIC radio.

Let us not forget the hockey team. John Clarkin, Jim Sarno, George Bryant, Bob Therrien, Tom Ross, Jack Jacewicz, Joe Hutchinson and Bill Nareski finished the season with a 2-2 record.

Under the chairmanship of the class officers, we presented the seniors with their farewell prom, "Carousel". The unusual decorations consisted of various cardboard animals and a large carousel in the center of the gym.

We were now on the threshold of the final step in our journey. Over the past three years we had matured and progressed to the status of seniors. Much lay ahead of us. There was much to be done and many preparations to be considered.

We will not easily forget the odor which emitted from the chemistry labs after first and second periods, and for some reason seemed to linger for the entire day.

We now established the balance between ourselves and the underclassmen. As seniors we took on the leadership of the entire school. The Student Council functioned under the direction of Miki Mokrycki, president; Rick Bellico, vice-president; Alma Maldonado, secretary; and Sam Sferrazza, steering committee chairman. Our other representatives were Ellen FitzGibbons and Joe McGrath.

We began our first project of the year under the direction of our class president Bill Dripchak, vice-president, Jay Fuller, secretary, Betty Sarno, and treasurer, Lynn Smyth. We sponsored a food sale which we held at Food Mart, the profits of which went into the class fund.

On the soccer field were Mike Foley and Bill Dripchak (co-captains), Bill Nareski, Bob Jones, Ron Gravel, and Ken

Our Senior Prom, "Visions of Sugarplums," was directed by Nanette Morin. Host and Hostess were Gene Bence and Linda Moody.

The Drama Club worked diligently to make their production of Oklahoma! a success.

To Linda Gademan went the honor of the D.A.R. Award. The boys on the basketball team continued their struggle for the Valley Wheel title. The girl's basketball team was not to be outdone. They finished the season in second place.

We have now reached the final phase of the present. Only the future awaits us. As we leave Enfield we are faced with the balance between the security which we felt in high school and the challenge of the modern world. We will have, to carry with us, the experiences and achievements of our high school years.

supporting the classics,

As a service to our school and the music department, our sophomore class sponsored the annual Spring Concert. Girls from the class served as usherettes and sold tickets at the door. Our newly formed jazz band was introduced under the direction of Mr. Leonard DeMaio. The entire sophomore class worked diligently to make the concert the great success it was.

General Chairman-Linda Gademan.

Under the direction of Linda Gademan, Sophomore Class President, the Class of '66 undertook their first money raising project. Our Penny-less Dance proved to be an enjoyable evening for all. We printed our own tickets and worked daily on our decorations, publicity, and ticket sales. To the swinging music of our two bands, freshmen as well as seniors helped to boost the treasury of the class of '66.

BAKE SALE

Because of the high operational and publication costs of our yearbook, help was needed for our finances. What better way was there to make money than to appeal to people's appetites with delicious and tantilizing pastries and cakes? People love to eat and with all the fine cooks in our senior class the shoppers at Food Mart and Stop and Shop could not resist our wares.

Many thanks to all the senior homeroom representatives and others who worked at the bake sales. Because of their efforts, our treasury was given a welcome boost.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement is an extra-curricular, learn-by-doing activity sponsored by local businesses. Students obtain valuable experience in owning, managing, and working for a corporate enterprise by forming their own miniature companies. They learn what it really takes to run a business, and at the same time become familiar with record keeping, production and sale of products, and use of capital.

This year there were four Junior Achievement companies: Ambiz, sponsored by CL&P, Delta Rho, sponsored by deBell & Richardson, Trend, sponsored by Bigelow Sanford, and Double-O-Semble, sponsored by Bridge's. Every Monday night juniors and seniors met to learn more about the activities of a business and had fun

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Karl D. Lee Chapter of the National Honor Society, named in honor of the former Enfield Superintendent of Schools, strives to uphold the ideals of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Various aids, such as tutoring before major exams, are performed during the course of the year by the members. Juniors who have maintained an honor average for three years are eligible for membership. A social program is held each year at which new members are inducted by the seniors.

STUDENT

The Enfield High Student Council was organized with several objectives in mind. Among them were the interpretation of student opinion, the encouragement of good citizenship and better student-teacher relationship, the fostering of better school spirit, the enacting of legislation beneficial to the general welfare of the school and reviewing the requests of school clubs and classes to sponsor activities involving the student body.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Teachers main objective for the year 1965-66 was the Warehouse Point Receiving Home Project. Each week students visited the home to entertain the children. With the supervision of Mrs. Mullen, the club's advisor, the service proved to be rewarding to both the children and the club members.

Guest speakers included teachers and guidance directors from our school as well as teachers from other local schools. The club's purpose, to stimulate student's interest in teaching and to activate their growth as outstanding teachers, became a reality in our senior year.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Started in October, 1962, the Future Nurses Club is open to all students interested in nursing. Members become involved in many activities such as visiting and helping people in nursing homes and orphanages. Trips are also taken to local hospitals. Speakers in different fields of nursing talk to the students to acquaint them with some of the many varied aspects of nursing. Mrs. Josephine Epstein, the school nurse, has acted as the advisor to this activity.

LIBRARY AIDES

The Library Aides give interested students the opportunity to work in the library one or two days a week during their study periods.

This year, in addition to the records previously available, the library has installed new apparatus for the benefit of the students, such as a copying machine and a tape recorder. Library Aides learn how to operate the equipment, which enables them to be of service to the students.

The group also sponsors various activities. This year they entertained an author and other Library Aide groups from neighboring high schools. They also attended various meetings and state workshops.

Students who meet certain minimal requirements may receive academic credit for library aide work.

E.B.M.

The purpose of the Enfield Business Managers Club is to aid the school in any of its business transactions and give the members an advanced knowledge of business through practical experience. The members operate the school store for the benefit of the entire student body. This year they sought advertising and planned the program for the school play, Oklahoma. Each year the club sponsors Play Day, to finish off the school year with a grand flourish.

HI-Y

The Enfield Hi-Y is one of the most active groups in the school. It emphasizes fundamentals of government through student participation. During the past few years the Hi-Y has succeeded in sending delegates to Youth in Government in Hartford, and to the National Hi-Y Congress in Minnesota. It also has fund raising projects to cover expenses for its activities and for charities. Hi-Y membership is a rewarding experience for any high school boy.

HOSTESS CLUB

Through the Hostess Club, juniors and seniors learn the essentials of becoming good homemakers. With Mrs. Cassidy as adviser, the girls study flower and table arrangements. They have contributed to the success of several school functions, such as the open house by providing eye-pleasing refreshments.

SKI CLUB

Open to all enthusiasts of one of the fastest growing winter sports, the ski club is one of Enfield High's largest clubs. Mr. Gawle serves as adviser; Jan Nareski, president; Bill Nareski, vice-president; Jan Wojnar, secretary; Gary Gody, treasurer. This year the club took several trips to Mt. Tom and Thunder Mountain. Several other journeys were planned, but an early thaw forced their cancellation. Instead, members viewed films of skiing and had displays of the latest in ski equipment and après-ski attire.

DRAMA CLUB

During the past three years we have watched the slow tedious process of producing ordinary plays into theatrical masterpieces. Opening night, at each annual performance was a tribute and accomplishment of months of hard work. Under the direction of Mr. Frankin Gross, such plays as The Hasty Heart, Teahouse of the August Moon, Inherit the Wind, and Oklahoma were presented.

The club is directed under the guild system whereby students can advance from apprentice to master. When they have become experienced members, they can become Lamplighters.

Credit must also be given to the numerous technicians and "stage-hands" whose undying support made the flower of success bloom.

CONCERT BAND

Over the past few years a new enthusiasm has arisen in the high school through the efforts of our school band. The band has taken an athletic front by playing at home football and basketball games. They have also taken a more serious role in the Christmas and Spring Concert and parades which occur during the year.

The band group plays various types of music including traditional, modern, and contemporary. Their latest undertaking is Oklahoma for our school drama group.

We attribute much of our success to our band director, Mr. Leonard DeMaio, and the seniors who are leaving this year. They are the following: Robert Jacobs, Robert Therrien, Chris Martin, Mike Foley, Zane Pumiglia, Paul Skowron, Phil Browne, Kathy Leno, George Bryant, Joe Novak, Marilyn Myers, and Beverly Bacewicz.

JAZZ BAND

Our school Jazz Band is composed of a group of skilled musicians who are specially selected from the regular band for their playing ability and interest. Since its beginning in 1963, the Jazz Band has participated in many school and outside activities and has been featured on the recording, Americana. The Jazz Band has played a variety of material, from traditional dance band pieces to contemporary jazz.

The time finally arrived when our junior class could display their creative ability. On May 7, 1965, entering through the Hellenic arches, the couples were greeted by the host and hostess, Barry Masterson and Mo Mercik.

The juniors relived a night of Grecian ecstasy. We danced to the music of the Joe Chopus Combo in the shadows of Doric columns and Athenian facades. The couples were reluctant to leave the enchanted land of Greece.

CAROUSEL

In turn, we, as the Junior class, presented the farewell prom to the graduating seniors and rallied a large ambitious group of classmates for the unforgettable prom Carousel, the setting was of carnival romance with pastels and gaiety in every corner. Nanette Morin was chairman in the creative merry-go-round of three dimensional animals surrounding the dance floor and drawn together with the swirling fantasia of colored crepe paper overhead. The night was enhanced by the presence of our host and hostess, Mike Smyth and Diane D'Aleo, greeting the guests and circulating throughout the evening.

Aesthetic beauty was woven through the room with the well-known Al Jarvis Band playing reminiscent melodies and the refreshment stand staying well equipped with the tempting delights. As the evening progressed and the hour came to bid farewell, all left in good spirits.

VISIONS OF SUGARPLUMS On the wintry evening of December

On the wintry evening of December 10th, under the direction of Nanette Morin, the Senior Prom, Visions Of Sugarplums, was held. The couples were greeted by the host and hostess, Gene Bence and Linda Moody, and various mischievous elves.

With the Twelve Days of Christmas looking down upon them, the guests entered a snowy evening filled with snowmen, beautifully wrapped presents, and Visions Of Sugarplums. While dancing beneath the floating snowflakes, colorful holly balls, and swirling streamers, the couples were reminded of the coming Christmas season.

Santa drew the evening to a close by bestowing candy canes upon all good little boys and girls.

STUDENT TICKER

Learning more about the professional world each year, the Ticker staff now produces a paper everyone can be proud of. During our stay we have seen it progress from a stack of mimeographed papers to a professional looking journal.

From the many contributions submitted by members of each class have emerged outstanding articles and editorials on school events.

Responsible for the progress and success of the Ticker are the dedicated editors, without whom the Ticker would never be a functioning part of our school.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Each year members of the graduating class are chosen who will be dedicated to the task of producing a reflective yearbook. The yearbook staff works throughout the year to produce a yearbook our whole class can be proud of. Under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief, a network of various groups performs diverse tasks.

The first project was to choose a theme. After several meetings during which many suggestions and sketches for covers were discussed, the staff settled on a theme of balance and selected a design for the present cover. This was only the start however, and the staff soon learned what was necessary to publish a yearbook. There were committee meetings to attend and weekend meetings at the editor's house. As the deadlines approached, the latter took on an immense importance as the time was not available to complete the work at school. There were pictures to be taken, developed, cast away and retaken. The selected pictures then had to be cropped and captioned. The meetings at times neared chaos as staff members strove to correlate the conglomaration of pictures, captions, copy and running heads. Eventually however, the deadlines were met and the staff breathed a sigh of relief that they had accomplished what they had set out to do.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Because of the size of our class, Washington was invaded by two different groups of seniors this year. With anxious anticipation we awaited the long journey to the National Capital.

With tired feet but questioning minds, we visited the Lincoln Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery, and Mount Vernon. Some ambitious seniors even climbed the Washington Monument. Perhaps the bus rides were the most memorable part of the trip. Or maybe the cafeterias where we ate our meals?

After our five hour stop-over in New York, most of us were ready to get home for a good night's rest after an unforgettable week.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON

The 1965 Green Raider football team compiled a 3 win, 1 loss and 3 tie record. On September 25, the Enfield Raiders were host to Ludlow. The Raiders drew first blood in the first period when Russ Tyler and Charlie Ragno, a familiar combination to Enfield fans, teamed up for a 35-yard touchdown aerial. The Ludlow team later scored in the second period. Our defense, led by co-captain Bob Bohman and mainstay John Ashton, prevented another score by Ludlow. And thus the game ended in a tie—the third out of 7 games in the last two years.

The next game was against Holyoke Catholic on Friday, October 8th. This marked the first night game that the Green Raiders had played since 1952. This time Enfield showed its running game in the forms of Herb Taylor and Mike Angelica, who had touchdown runs of 31 and 28 yards respectively. A fine defensive effort was turned in by Greg Quinlan and Mike Angelica. John Fuller kicked a point after touchdown to make it a 13-0 victory.

In the next game on October 16, a Suburban League encounter, Enfield traveled to Palmer to play the Panthers. In the first quarter the Raiders scored when Russ Tyler faded back to pass and finding his receiver covered raced 40 yards to a touchdown. Again fullback Herb Taylor gained a large chunk of yardage and Greg Quinlan contributed a good defensive effort. But with one minute before the final gun, the Panthers were able to push over a score and the Raiders left the field with another tie.

In the next game on October 23, the Green Wave visited the Spartans of East Longmeadow. The winhungry Raiders scored a touchdown in the first period on the fine running of fullback Taylor and the passcatching of Ragno. Center Jack Jacewicz recovered a fumble in the end zone to score the touchdown. Later a Tyler-to-Ragno pass chalked up another six points and at the end of the first half the Raiders were ahead 12-0. But in the second half the Raiders seemed to lose their momentum and but for fine defensive efforts of Jack Jasewicz, Mike Angelica, John Ashton, Bob Bohman, and Ray Weller, the game would have ended with a more lopsided score than 16-12 in favor of the Spartans.

Next on October 30, the weary Raiders opened a 3 game home stand when the Minnechaug Falcons invaded Enfield. By the end of the day, the Falcons' wings had been clipped. Enfield struck early in the first quarter on runs by Angelica and Taylor and a one yard plunge by Tyler. The run for the point after touchdown was successful and the Raiders led 8-0. In the second quarter, Charlie Ragno intercepted a Falcon pass and took the ball 30 yards for another score. Mike Angelica ran for the extra two points and the Raiders were ahead 16-0. Then the Raiders scored again with a combination of Tyler-to-Ragno passes and Enfield led 22-0 at halftime. In the third quarter, after runs by Tyler and Taylor, Tyler hit Ragno with a 4 yard aerial TD and the Raiders led 28-0. Enfield's sophomores finished the game. Again Enfield produced a brilliant defensive effort. Rick LaFleur, Bob Desormier, Jack Jacewicz, Charlie Ragno, John Longo, and Ray Weller turned in noteworthy performances. On the offensive side, the running of Taylor and Angelica and the 3 touchdown output by Ragno helped complement the defense and give Enfield its best all-around performance of the season.

On November 6, winless South Hadley visited Enfield. The Tigers scored midway in the first quarter to take a 6-0 lead. For a while it looked as if the game would end that way. Both teams turned in good defensive performances. But with a minute left in the fourth quarter, Enfield got its hands on the ball. Successive passes from Tyler to junior Dave Tucker moved Enfield to the Tigers' five yard line. Then with 13 seconds left Tyler fired to Ragno in the end zone for six points. Then came the try for extra point, but the South Hadley team stopped the running play. The game ended in a 6-6 deadlock, the third for the Raiders in six games. Again the mainstays of the defensive line were Jack Jacewicz, John Ashton, and Bob Bohman.

On November thirteenth, the Green Wave was host to their traditional rival, Longmeadow, on a rainsoaked field. Midway in the first quarter, Gerry McDougel ran twice and Mike Angelica carted the ball fifteen yards for six points, then the Raiders led 16-0. In the second quarter Tyler threw to Ragno to the Lancer's fifteen; six plays later Herb Taylor bulled over for another six points, and a Tyler to Ragno pass made it 14-0 at half-time. Then in the fourth quarter, Tyler hit Ragno for an 18 yard TD, and John Fuller added more icing to the cake when he kicked the ball through the uprights for the point after and a 21-0 final score. Those who contributed their efforts were Gerry McDougal, Mike Angelica and Charlie Ragno. Defensive stickouts were Greg Quinlan, John Fuller, John Longo, Rich LaFleur, John Ashton, Bob Bohman and Ray Weller.

Other steady performers for Enfield this year were ends Jim Roach, Jack Herold and Nate Hale, and punter Ed McCann. To cap off the season, Charlie Ragno, leading team scorer the last two seasons, was voted All-Suburban League end for the second year in a row, and Bob Bohman was voted All-Suburban League tackle. At the awards dinner, Ragno was presented with the Most Valuable Player award.

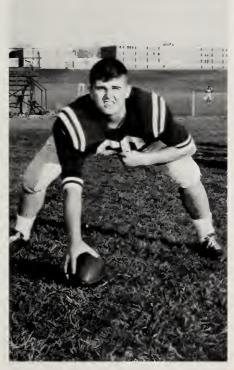

Enfield's defense again was the highpoint of the football season. With graduation, Coach Lamana will lose most of his defensive team, his offensive line, and part of the starting backfield. Next year an experienced backfield will return, headed by Russ Tyler, Joe Nosal, and Frank Thompson. We wish good luck to next year's team and hope they also produce a winning record and capture the league title.

Co-captains Mike Foley, Ken Breedon and Bill Dripchak sparked the team with senior Foley and junior Breedon leading the scoring with 7 and 8 goals respectively. Senior defensemen Bill Nareski, Bob Jones, Ken Strum, Ron Gravel and Bill Dripchak helped stop the ball from penetrating the goal and they forwarded it up to the offensive line.

The Raiders played several good games of which the overtime victory over the East Longmeadow varsity was the most thrilling. In the first overtime period, Foley rocked the ball past the Spartan's goalie, Stietz, and into the nets. This was the best all-around game that the Green Wave played.

Next year Coach Easton is expecting 15 returnees and hopes to complete another winning season. We wish him good luck in his ventures.

VARSITY BASKETBALL SEASON

The Enfield Green Raiders compiled the 65-66 season with a 5 win, 10 loss record. But it can be said that the record is not a true picture of the season.

Enfield started off the season by accepting an invitation to the jamboree at South Hadley. There they whipped a strong South Hadley team in an abbreviated game. Next the Raiders officially opened their season and a three game home stand with a home victory over Springfield Commerce. Then followed a heartbreaking one point loss to East Longmeadow. The Raiders started a rally late in the third period but were not able to sustain it.

Then the Raiders took on a strong Agawam and lost by a score of 70 to 59. The Green Wave then ventured from home to sweep by Commerce again, Longmeadow and Easthampton. Future potential was shown in the talent of Russ Tyler as he threw in 35 points against the Eagles. The high flying Raiders then took on Ludlow at home, and they were beaten by a score of 68-60. Then followed a loss to Minnechaug, another one point loss to East Longmeadow and another to Agawam. The Raiders finally broke their losing streak with a solid 13 point win over Longmeadow.

Easthampton then invaded the Raider's court, and the high-flying Eagles were able to chalk up a thrilling overtime victory. The Raiders then lost to Springfield Tech, Minnechaug again and Ludlow.

The season showed many surprises from the discovery of the talent held by Russ Tyler to the speed capable of being held by one team.

Although not enjoying a winning season the team did feel a tremendous amount of support from the spectators and from the student body at Enfield High.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1965-66 basketball season proved to be a successful one for the girls as they placed second in their league. Through many a practice and the coaching of Mrs. Bryant, the girls compiled an 8-2 record. Their only two losses were to the league winner, Ware High School.

DRILL TEAM

The "Raiderettes" had another successful year in 1965-66. The purpose of the Drill Team is to offer an opportunity for the girls to gather together to promote school spirit. Many football and basketball routines were created by the girls, accompanied by Mr. DeMaio and his band, to entertain the fans. The officers this year are Sharon Falkowski, captain, Cheryl Copas, co-captain, Roberta Millet, secretary, and Domenica Cicoria, treasurer.

BASEBALL TEAM

This year's team promises to be one of the best Enfield has ever produced. A strong infield seems to be the Green Raider's insurance of a respectable record.

Hoping to make up for a weak outfield is strong hitting and the reliable keystone combination of Dave McCord and Chick Ragno.

Making up for last year's loss of seniors and promising to bring the team to greater victories in this season's playoffs are Dave McCord, Charles Ragno, Lou Tallarita, Gerry McDougal, Mike Angelica, Tom Owens and Rick Baril.

TRACK TEAM

The Enfield High School Track Team will be entering its third season of Valley Wheel competition with high hopes for a good year. Coaches Frank Gawle and John Hagberg say that the team is beginning to round out now that the team has been organized for a few years. They hope to have a well-rounded team with good strength in every event instead of just a few individual stars that have developed in the past few years.

Returning seniors who will help the team are John Fuller, captain; Walter Kirchmirer; Ron Gravel; John Fowler; John White; Allen White; Herb Taylor; and Rick LaFleur.

Other seniors out for the first time that are expected to help are John Ashton, Ray Weller, Bob Porcello and Jeff Stevens.
